How to book

Book with Air Canada Aeroplan

Air Canada charges 90,000 points plus $50 in fees, taxes and surcharges each way.

Transfer partners: American Express, Bilt, Chase and Capital One (points usually transfer instantly).

Book with Avianca LifeMiles

Avianca charges 90,000 miles (or 72,000 miles if you leverage the Citi 25% transfer bonus) plus $30 in fees, taxes and surcharges each way.

Transfer partners: American Express, Bilt, Capital One, Wells Fargo and Citi (points usually transfer instantly).

Book with United MileagePlus

United Airlines charges 220,000 miles plus $5 in fees, taxes and surcharges each way.

Transfer partners: Bilt and Chase (points usually transfer instantly).

Tips and tricks

- Holders of the Aeroplan® Credit Card from Chase receive a 10% bonus when they transfer Chase Ultimate Rewards points to Air Canada Aeroplan.
- There is a current transfer bonus from Citi to Avianca LifeMiles of 25%.
- When booking through Avianca LifeMiles, it can be tricky to find space due to the program's clunky search tool.
- Instead, consider first checking for availability through United's website, where you have the option of seeing availability month by month. When you find flights for 220,000 United miles, you can then cross-check these dates with Avianca or Air Canada to book the cheaper rate.

Step-by-step instructions

1. Visit the Air Canada Aeroplan site.
2. Enter flight details for the search.
3. Find the best date.
4. Cross-reference award availability on other booking sites.
5. Choose the best booking option for you.
6. Call to verify award space with an agent.
7. Transfer points.
8. Book your flight.

Notes:

- Up to one business-class seat is available per flight.
- There is very limited award space via Avianca.
- Air Canada Aeroplan has the most award space.
- These routes fly Air India's new A350-900 with the new business-class product.
