Tips and tricks

- There are numerous options for booking Emirates flights with rewards, and the one-way award rates vary based on the specific award program.
- While Qantas offers the lowest business-class points rate, there is more availability through Emirates.
- Emirates offers an option to upgrade to first class with miles.
- This route with Emirates is what is known as a fifth-freedom flight, which means neither the origin nor the destination is in the carrier's home country. These routes sometimes come with cheaper fares.
- Holders of the Aeroplan® Credit Card from Chase get an extra 10% on the transfer of Chase Ultimate Rewards points to Air Canada Aeroplan.

Step-by-step instructions

1. Visit the Emirates Skywards site and sign in to your account.
2. Select "Search flights" to find the booking portal.
3. Enter the origin and destination airports.
4. Enter the desired date, but select "My dates are flexible."
5. Use the Emirates award calendar to find the relevant date.
6. Transfer miles if needed (this usually happens instantly).
7. Book the flight.

Notes:

- There are up to six business-class seats and two first-class seats available per flight.
- Air Canada and Qantas often have the same award dates.
- Emirates has a round-trip business-class offer of 65,000 miles plus $250 for select dates.
- Emirates has been retrofitting its Boeing 777-300ERs with new first- (1-1-1) and business-class (1-2-1) cabins.
