Tips and tricks

- There are many award-booking options for United Airlines business class, mainly with Star Alliance partner airlines.
- The major benefit of having multiple booking options for United Airlines business class is the ability to transfer miles from almost any program with a flexible currency.
- Holders of the Aeroplan® Credit Card from Chase get an extra 10% on the transfer of Chase Ultimate Rewards points to Air Canada Aeroplan.
- The taxes and fees for the return flight departing from London will be significantly higher due to the United Kingdom's Air Passenger Duty.

DEAL OF THE DAY

Step-by-step instructions

- Visit the Air Canada Aeroplan site and log in to your account.
- Enter flight details for the search.
- Find the best date.
- Cross-reference award availability on other booking sites.
- Choose the best booking option for you.
- Call to verify award space with an agent.
- Transfer points if needed.
- Book your flight.

Notes:

- There are up to nine business-class seats available per flight.
- Round-trip award flights for this route can only be booked via ANA Mileage Club.
- If booking through Avianca LifeMiles, it can be tricky to find space due to the program's clunky search tool.
- Instead, consider first checking for availability through United Airlines' website, where you can see availability month by month. You can then cross-check these dates with Avianca or Air Canada to book the cheaper rate.
